

Sound & Vision join expanding retailer network of Flixmedia.tv

Retail Technology Newscast – February 2009

Sound & Vision, the mail order AV retailer, is the latest UK retailer to be added to Flixmedia.tv's expanding global retailer network which includes Amazon, Play.com, Dabs, and Misco.

With their philosophy to use a 'little less techno babble', Sound & Vision has been offering their customers a fresh approach to buying key technologies for over a decade.

"Flixmedia provides us with great video content, which is both appealing and informative for our customers. The 'QuikClip' videos are of a high standard and serve as an additional selling tool on our website," said Oliver Lees, marketing manager at Sound & Vision.
